WEBSITE: www.craigellachie-band.co.uk/isle\_of\_wight.html

THE WEEKEND is designed to give those with a good working knowledge of steps and formations the opportunity to improve their technique, learn new dances and enjoy all social aspects of Scottish Country Dancing. We start with a wine reception before dinner on Friday, and finish after lunch on Sunday. There are classes each morning and a social dance each evening. We endeavour to evenly arrange participants into two mixed ability classes on Saturday and Sunday mornings. To assist with this please indicate your ability as accurately as possible in the boxes below.

As socialising is a large, and important, part of Scottish country dancing we are keen to invite non-hotel residents to join in the non-dancing parts of the weekend. We would therefore like to draw your attention to the various options to add lunch onto your morning class and/or the wine reception and dinner onto the evening social dances.

We are happy to accept applications from people wishing to attend one or all sessions.

COST: As specified on reverse and are per person.

Due to the popularity of the weekend, bookings cannot be secured until full payment has been received. If, for any reason, you need to cancel your booking we will endeavour to refund your fee. Cancellations made after 1st February 2022 will be charged in full.

OUR TEACHERS AND MUSICIANS:

Diane Rooney: Diane is a very experienced teacher who believes in the enormous health benefits of SCD, the importance of music to the dance form and believes if it's not fun, it's not Scottish Country Dancing!

Mervyn Short: Mervyn has taught at day and weekend schools all over the world. He is very keen to maintain the technique and traditions of Scottish country dancing but appreciates that it is an evolving dance form.

Robert Mackay: Robert is no stranger to the Isle of Wight Weekend, having been involved since its inception. He has been playing for Scottish country dance classes for over forty years and has played all over the world.

Ian and Judith Muir: Ian and Judith both started playing at an early age for country dancing and both have considerable experience playing for classes, weekend, Summer and Winter Schools both here and abroad. Ian is the current Music Director of the RSCDS.
