

Isle of Wight Weekend School 2027

Why not join us for a talk and sampling session on Saturday afternoon from 2pm – 3.45pm?

David Brooks, The Isle of Wight Distillery's Brand Ambassador, is coming to give us a talk at the hotel on the full Mermaid range.

At just £5 per person, it's a bargain!

Bottles, miniatures and gift sets will be available at the end of the session at preferential pricing compared with the High Street.

If you'd like to attend, please tick the relevant box on the application form and include the cost when making payment.
